ITEM 11 (Cont.)

On October 19th to 26th we participated in a trade show of the 49th American Society of Travel Agents World Congress which was held in Munich, Germany.

No other activities of this sort other than the regular office routine took place during this period.

ITEM 15 a)

During the seminars conducted on August 22nd and 23rd in the City of Miami, entertainment to the participants was offered in the form of a brief cocktail party.

During the 49th American Society of Travel Agentes World Congress in Munich three luncheons for ten persons each, fitting into the bonafide category of travel agents and travel wholesalers were held.

On November 13th, with the occasion of the opening in New York of an exhibit of a collection of pieces of the Gold Museum of Bogota at the American Museum of Natural History and with the cooperation of other Colombian agencies, a reception for five hundred (500) persons was hosted.

On November 20th, with the occasion to show to the travel industry of the New York area the samples of the above mentioned Gold Museum and trying to obtain some publicity for the country, a reception for two hundred and fifty (250) persons of the travel industry and travel press was held.

In December, a luncheon for eight (8) members of the American Society of Travel Writers was given.

ITEM 15 b)

Although we have reported under this item on previous reports that we invite Travel Writers, Travel Agents, Travel Wholesalers or Media Representatives to visit Colombia in order to familiarize them with the facilities existing there, so that they can program and sell trips or to induce them to write about our country, we did not conduct any of such trips during the period ending December 31st, 1979.
